Jail Escapee Caught After Foot Pursuit

Somerset police have arrested Somerset man after he fled from the Pulaski County Detention Center.

Christopher Brumley, age 24, of Somerset, was serving a one-year sentence for Burglary 3rd and Theft by Unlawful Taking and was assigned to a work release detail. He was in the process of being returned to the detention center when he fled the detention center grounds before being secured inside. This occurred at 4:36 PM Thursday.

Somerset Police officers, along with the Pulaski County Sheriff's Department and Detention Center employees fanned across the area to re-capture Brumley.

Shortly thereafter, information came in that Brumley may be at a relative's home in the Jarvis Avenue and Grand Avenue areas of the city. Patrol units, detectives, and deputy jailers searched two residences but were unable to find him.

At 5:18 PM, Brumley was then spotted walking behind some apartments on East Mt. Vernon Street and was arrested after a short foot pursuit by Det. Chris Gates.

He was lodged in the Pulaski County Detention Center and charged with Escape 2nd Degree and Fleeing or Evading Police 2nd Degree.
