Somerset Man Wanted after Domestic Incident

At 11:52 AM Tuesday, Somerset police officers responded to a domestic situation on Hope Way.

When they arrived, they learned Tammy Todd had been assaulted by David Cooper Decker, age 30, of Cave Hollow Road in Somerset.

Todd was able to escape the residence, but witness reported Decker remained inside.

Officers secured the perimeter fearing Decker was barricaded inside. Officers from SPD's Hostage Negotiation Team and Crisis Intervention team responded to try to get Decker to peacefully exit the house.

After about two hours, officers made entry into the residence, but Decker was not inside and apparently fled prior to officer's arrival.

Decker is currently wanted on charges of Wanton Endangerment 1st degree and Assault 4th degree - Domestic Violence.
