Somerset Man Arrested After Burglary Report

Somerset Police Officers responded to a burglary report at 5:43 PM Saturday night on Jasper Street.

The victim heard someone trying to enter her apartment through a window and called 911, reporting a white male wearing a black tank top and red short pants fled after she scared him away.

Sgt. Brad Stevens located Jimmy Cook, Jr., age 31, of Grundy Road in Somerset, a few minutes later on Jasper Street matching that description.

The victim was able to identify Cook as the person trying to enter her apartment.

He was arrested and charged with Criminal Attempt to Commit Burglary 2nd degree. He was lodged in the Pulaski County Detention Center.
