Smith Sworn in as Police Officer

The Somerset Police Department has sworn in its newest police officer. Officer Randall Smith was presented to the city council during last night's meeting.

Officer Smith is a 1998 graduate of Lawrenceburg High School and served as a sergeant and squad leader in the United States Marine Corps for over 9 years.

Smith served in Afghanistan and received two Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medals; was a Primary and Combat Marksmanship Instructor; and conducted 35 combat and security patrol as part of Operation Enduring Freedom.

Officer Smith graduated from the Kentucky Department of Criminal Justice Training 18-week basic training class # 406 on October 16, 2009.

He has been assigned to the patrol division and will be assigned to a field training officer for the next 14 weeks before being assigned to solo patrol duties.

Officer Smith is married to the former Amanda Gilbert. They have a 3-year-old daughter, and are expecting their second child.
