Texas Fugitive Arrested in Somerset

Somerset police officers have captured a man wanted in Texas for child sex offenses.

At 11:44 PM Thursday night, SPD Officer Billy Bolin arrested Anthony Oshea, age 24, of Somerset and charged him with being a fugitive from another state. He was taken into custody on Hideaway Drive without incident.

Earlier in the day, authorities in Houston, Texas alerted the Somerset Police Department that Oshea was wanted on outstanding warrants from Harris County and was living in Somerset. The warrants were for Promoting Child Pornography, Online Solicitation of a Minor, and a third charge of Indecency with a Minor.

Oshea was lodged in the Pulaski County Detention Center. He will appear in Pulaski District Court to determine when he will be extradited to Texas.

SPD units were assisted by the Pulaski County Sheriff Department.
