SPD Welcomes Elgin Pettus During Swearing In Ceremony

Several Somerset police officers were on hand as Officer Elgin Pettus was sworn in by Mayor Eddie Girdler as Somerset PD's newest officer.

Officer Pettus was born in Hopkinsville, Kentucky and graduated from Christian County High in 1993. He attended college at Western Kentucky University then moved to Somerset in 1998.

He graduated from the Kentucky Department of Criminal Justice Training's 18-week police academy on October 24, 2008 and was sworn in October 27 in the Council Chambers of city hall. He will be assigned with a field training officer for the next 14 weeks.

Officer Pettus enjoys basketball and outdoor activities. He is divorced, and has one child.
