SPD Activity for Thanksgiving 2008

The Somerset Police Department experienced a routine holiday weekend for Thanksgiving Day 2008, despite a busy shopping day on Black Friday.

SPD units were dispatched to 282 calls for service between Wednesday evening and Sunday night.

Officers made 14 arrests for a variety of charges. There was one arrest for DUI and three for Alcohol Intoxication. Five people were arrested for shoplifting, but only one of those being on Friday. Six people were arrested on outstanding warrants. There was one drug arrested posted for the holiday period.

There were four non-injury collisions and one person was hurt during a collision Friday afternoon. At 4:40 PM, Lora Hash, age 27, of Somerset was transported to the Lake Cumberland Regional Hospital when the 1997 Ford she was driving was struck in the rear by a 2007 Honda, driven by Brandon Compton, age 26, also of Somerset. There was one passenger in the Hash vehicle and two in the Compton vehicle that were uninjured. SPD units were assisted at the scene by the Somerset Fire/EMS.
