Several Arrested on SPD Indictments

Over the weekend, several suspects were arrested on Pulaski Circuit Court Indictments after criminal cases were investigated by the Somerset Police Department.

On May 11, Danielle N. Blankenship, 23, of Science Hill, was arrested on an Indictment charging her with Theft by Unlawful Taking Over $300, a felony, related to a 2007 shoplifting incident at Wal-Mart. Officer Pete Langdon was the investigating officer.

Steven T. Miller, 24, of Somerset, was charged with Possession of a Controlled Substance 1st Degree in connection with a November 2007 investigation conducted by Officer Chris Roberts.

On May 12, at 12:03 AM, SPD Lt. Randy Goff served Stephanie Harrison with an Indictment for Receiving Stolen Property Over $300. Harrison, 21, of Somerset, is accused of possessing stolen property belonging to Kyle Dowell and the White Lily Fire Department. That investigation was conducted by Officer Pete Langdon.

All suspects were lodged in the Pulaski County Detention Center.
