Fugitive Arrested

The Somerset Police Department arrested an Indiana fugitive over the weekend after receiving a complaint at the Lake Cumberland Regional Hospital.

Officer Pete Langdon responded at 8:03AM Saturday morning to a disorderly conduct call at the emergency room.

Upon his arrival, Officer Langdon found Bryant C. Ross, 21, of Anderson, Indiana, was wanted by the authorities in Hendricks County, Indiana on a charge of failure to appear on a prior DUI arrest.

Ross was arrested and lodged in the Pulaski County Detention Center.

SPD officers were also kept busy over the weekend enforcing drug and alcohol violations.

Officers lodged 10 drivers on DUI charges. Two of the DUI arrests were also charged with having open containers of alcoholic beverages in their vehicles. Three people were arrested for alcohol intoxication.

Somerset police also arrested three people for drug possession.
